

THE ROLE OF TURKISTAN JADIDS IN THE FORMATION AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE UZBEK NATIONAL LANGUAGE

SAYIDOV YOQUB SIDDIQOVICH

Assistant Professor, Department of Philology, Bukhara State University the Republic of Uzbekistan,
Bukhara, Uzbekistan

ABSTRACT

The article discusses the views of Turkistan Jadids on the rules and lexis of the Uzbek national literal language as well as the development of the national language. Their role in the production of the theory of the Uzbek literal language, arranging them into a certain order, creating Uzbek language grammar and promoting socio-political role of the language is defined. The theme is analyzed by the methods of classification, comparative-historical and generalization.

KEYWORDS: Turkistan Jadid Movement, Jadid Literature, Uzbek Language, Literal Language, National Language, Ancient Turkic Languages, Arabic and Persian Languages, Adopted Words